A Book of Noises 2023-10-05 sound shapes our world in invisible but profound ways and here caspar henderson brings his characteristic curiosity knowledge and sense of wonder to the subject to take us on an exhilarating journey through the heard universe a book of noises gathers together sounds from the cosmos the natural world the human world and the invented world and contains quiet pockets of silence from the vast sound of sand in the desert to the tuneful warble of a songbird to the meditative resonance of a temple bell and the improvisational melodies of jazz this is a celebration of all things auricular

Memoirs of a Tory Radical 2011-10-31 a fully revised and updated edition of nigel lawson s extraordinary autobiography a key minister for a full decade and chancellor of the exchequer from 1983 to 1989 nigel lawson was one of the most powerful and effective of margaret thatcher s colleagues and among the chief architects of thatcherism this abridged edition of lord lawson s memoirs first published as the view from no 11 in 1992 and acclaimed as one of the best political memoirs of the period goes straight to the heart of economic policy making at a time of crisis and creative change it explains the workings of government with candour clarity and depth against the backdrop of the remarkable story of the rise and fall of his political collaboration with margaret thatcher productive and successful for many years but ending with his dramatic resignation in october 1989 the book includes a new final chapter reflecting on events from the perspective of 2010 also discussing the crisis in the banking sector and global warming

The Bondian Cold War 2023-09-01 james bond ian fleming s irrepressible and ubiquitous spy is often understood as a cold warrior but james bond s cold war diverged from the actual global conflict in subtle but significant ways that tension between the real and fictional provides perspectives into cold war culture transcending ideological and geopolitical divides the bondiverse is complex and multi textual including novels films video games and even a comic strip and has also inspired an array of homages copies and competitors awareness of its rich possibilities only becomes apparent through a multi disciplinary lens the desire to consider current trends in bondian studies inspired a conference entitled the bondian cold war convened at tallinn university estonia in june 2019 conference participants drawn from three continents and multiple disciplines film studies history intelligence studies and literature as well as intelligence practitioners offered papers on the literary and cinematic aspects of the spy discussed fact versus fiction in the bond canon went in search of a global bond and pondered gender and sexuality across the bondiverse this volume of essays inspired by that conference suitable for students researchers and anyone interested in cold war culture makes vital contributions to understanding bond as a global phenomenon across traditional divisions of east and west and beyond the end of the cold war from which he emerged

1987 this volume brings together key findings of the long term research project religious individualisation in historical perspective max weber centre for advanced cultural and social studies erfurt university combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in asia the mediterranean and europe from antiquity to the recent past contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially western or christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non western and pre modern scenarios furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality
