James Potter and the Vault of Destinies is the third book in the James Potter series by G. Norman Lippert, which acts as a follow-up to Lippert's novella The Girl on the Dock. The story revolves around James and his family along with a few friends as they travel to America and spend the year of change and upheaval for the entire Potter family. Harry as Head Auror has been sent to the United States to help investigate a nefarious underground group whose proclaimed goals are to unite the Muggle and magical world by any means necessary. Similarly, if you plunge ahead into Vault of Destinies without the foundation of the first two James Potter stories, you will likely find yourself almost immediately confused. It is a year of change and upheaval for the entire Potter family.
